Terms and Conditions

- All packages must be booked with a minimum of 120 day's notice. All sales are final, nonrefundable but are transferable. We highly suggest you obtain travel insurance.
- Some packages are offered on selected dates only and may not be available during busy holiday periods. No blackout dates apply, however, in rare instances some destinations may not be available to book for peak season. In the event this happens, we will work with you to provide the best possible alternative.
- Trip packages are preset itineraries. If you wish to deviate from your package, your travel specialist will be happy to assist. However, please note there will be a deviation fee plus any additional cost incurred by deviating from the package.
- Award Certificates are valid for two passengers and expire two years from the date of the event. Additional passengers can be added at time of booking, travel specialist will advise extra cost.
